

“Under the Canopy”

Exploring Non-timber Forest Products

April 19 to 21, 2005

Wahta Mohawks Community, Bala & Deerhurst Resort, Huntsville, ON

April 19 – Pre-conference Workshop (Wahta Mohawks Community)

Traditions ...

Communities ...

Enterprise ...

This full day workshop will explore First Nations traditional knowledge and uses of the forest, community development opportunities, and issues associated with the expanding popularity of forest pharmaceuticals, foods and other “non-timber” forest uses.

April 20 – Main Conference Seminars (Deerhurst Resort, Huntsville)

Products ...

Opportunities ...

Issues ...

This full day of seminars will include presentations on:

Canada Yew - Looking to the Future

“Wild-crafting” and Propagation

Community Economic Development

Multiple Use for Landowners

Maple Syrup and Beyond

Managing Forests for Economic Diversity

Opportunities from “Waste”

Rights & Regulations

Sustainability Issues

Tapping the Green Market

Commercial Exhibits and Business Information Exchange

April 21 – Main Conference Field Tours (Leave from Deerhurst Resort)

Values and Management on the Land ...

A full day field trip will show you local examples of:

Co-management for Timber and Non-timber Values

Sustainable Harvest of Yew

Enhancing Maple Syrup Operations

Traditional Values

For More Information and to Register

For updates on programs and speakers, information on exhibits, rates and accommodation:

Web Site
www.westwindforest.ca

Maxine Davidson, Registrar
Westwind Forest Stewardship Inc.
74 Church St. Parry Sound, P2A 1Z1
705-746-6832 ext 29
bmdavidson@zeuter.com

Earl Holley, Exhibits
705-746-6832 ext 25
earlholley@westwindforest.ca

 We are seeking funds to help people who need financial support to attend the conference. Please contact us to be placed on a list for sponsorship.
