

Exhibit 1: Logic Model for the FNFP

FNFP Strategic Objectives

- To enhance the capacity of First Nations to sustainably manage their forest lands;
- To enhance the capacity of First Nations to operate and participate in forest-based development opportunities and benefits;
- To advance the knowledge of First Nations in sustainable forest management and forest-based business development; and,
- To enhance the institutional capacity of First Nations at the provincial/territorial level to support their participation in the forest-based economy.

Resources

INAC and NRCan Funding and FTEs

Activities

Program Direction and Development
Training	Forest Management	Business	Advocacy and Education

Outputs

courses, seminars, workshops and on-site training.	forest management plans, research projects, forest inventories, traditional land use studies	feasibility studies, market studies, business plans, management plans, joint working agreements, new research reports	publications, videos, internet material
--	--	---	---

Short-term Outcomes

Improved forestry skills	Improved management practices and hands-on experience	Creation and development of forest-based businesses	Increased awareness of opportunities and issues
Employment contracts with forest corporations	Sustainable forest development	Business contracts with forest corporations	Establishment and expansion of networks
Increased number of jobs and employment in forestry			Enhanced institutional capacity
Improved provincial/territorial and corporate policies and practices related to First Nation forestry

Long-term outcomes

Sustainable Forests	Enhanced economic self-sufficiency
---------------------	------------------------------------